FRIDAY LETTER

Dear Parents and carers,

Parent Consultations and Questionnaires

Thank you to everyone who came to school on Tuesday and Wednesday for their Parents Evening Appointments. It was wonderful to welcome you all and share your child's progress with you. If you missed your appointment or could not attend for whatever reason, please get in touch. Thank you to the parents who completed the questionnaires. They will be collated and analysed with governors and results will be shared with parents after the Easter break.

Panto Fun

On Tuesday afternoon we welcomed M & M Productions panto company into school who performed The Little Princess for the whole school. The costumes, props and staging looked amazing and the children thoroughly enjoyed their afternoon, singing and joining in with the cast.

House Team Winners

Following the House matches and weekly house point awards, the numbers were added up and the House Team with the top score for the Spring Term wasCrookhill House, (yellow). They were rewarded with a treasure hunt of treats in the sunshine and lots of fun was had by all. Well done to everyone in Crookhill House we hope you enjoyed your day.

Easter Egg competition

Today was the judging of the famous Crookhill Primary Easter egg competition! Entries for this event are always very creative and this year was no different, with everyone being so inventive, making choosing the winning entries very difficult indeed! Egg Sheeran with his guitar and Eggy Howe with his Black and White Army were on display and taking inspiration from topics covered in class there was Egyptian themed eggs, Mary Anning, Antarctica and much more. Each and every one of them worthy winners but this year the prizes were awarded to: -
