

This Week at Crookhill

It's been another busy week at Crookhill. Children have worked especially hard in class completing their termly assessments. We look forward to sharing the information about your child's progress at our parent consultation evenings next week. Online bookings for appointments have now closed but just call the office if you haven't booked or received a time yet.

Ryton Christmas Tree Lighting

Thank you to those KS2 pupils who have returned the slips to say that they are able to attend the Christmas Tree Lighting at the Methodist Church on Thursday 27th November.

Reminder that children will walk along to the tree lighting with school staff and you should arrange to collect them from the tree at 4.15pm.

Children are welcome to bring festive hats or headwear to put on!

Next Friday is our Festivals of Light day in school. Children are invited to attend in non-uniform and bring a gift for our tombola.
